

Lowery Lariat

April 2021

A letter from our Principal, April Wright:

Time is precious. It's my favorite gift. In my opinion, it is the most precious of all things. I wish I understood the value of simple moments together when I was a young mom. My amazing son made me a mom when I was 21 and my incredible daughter was born at 24. I always anticipated the next stage. With busy days, often my fuse was short as we rushed from football, dance, softball, church events and time with friends and family. I miss those times. My daughter now shares her beautiful daughter, Mia, with me. This three and a half year-old has reminded me how fast time flies and has grounded me in celebrating each moment in time. We slow down time, literally stop to smell the flowers, examine the bug and find a sparkly rock. We have dance parties and make eating desert on the patio an event.

I wish I had this perspective when my children were younger. I wish I intentionally made moments in time fond memories with my two sweeties. I wish I could slow down time so that business doesn't take away from sweet moments.

Thank you for sharing your sweet children with us. We will slow down to make moments memories with them at Lowery.
